Press Release: Flagship Advisory Partners Promotes Anupam Majumdar and Scott DeHaven to Partner

Amsterdam, NL and Annapolis, MD, USA - Flagship Advisory Partners, the leading global strategy boutique focused exclusively on fintech, is pleased to announce the promotions of Anupam Majumdar based in our Amsterdam office, and Scott DeHaven, based in our Annapolis MD office to Partner.

Anupam Majumdar

Scott DeHaven

"Flagship has grown from three people to 40 in less than five years and Anupam and Scott have been integral to this success. We are excited to now have Anupam and Scott as co-owners of the business, leading our next wave of growth and development in Europe and North America." - Joel Van Arsdale

Anupam Majumdar has 17 years of experience both as an advisor and practitioner within payments and fintech. At Flagship, Anupam has successfully led dozens of engagements, and specializes in B2B payments, open banking, digital identity/fraud, merchant acceptance, and bank payments, with a focus on growth strategies, new market entry, and M&A commercial due diligence. As a Partner, Anupam will drive the ongoing growth of Flagship's consulting and M&A services focused on B2B fintech, digital identity/fraud, and A2A payments.

Scott DeHaven has 12 years of experience advising payments and fintech market participants. Scott's experiences include supporting fintech and payment companies with strategic initiatives, performance benchmarking, M&A activities, strategic partnership formations, and market research. As a Partner, Scott will continue to lead development of Flagship's North American practice focused on merchant acceptance and embedded payments.

The promotion of Anupam Majumdar and Scott DeHaven to partners reinforces Flagship's commitment to growth fueled by exceptional client service and deep market insights.
